

Careers Bulletin

Friday 26 April 2024

University of Sheffield online tasters

In April and May, there are a number of free opportunities for students to experience what it is like to study different subjects at the University of Sheffield.

All of the activities are completely free of charge and provide students with a good insight into their chosen subject or area of interest at university.

To see the many subject tasters available please see here where you can also complete the application/booking form.

Pathway CTM

Pathway CTM are holding 2 weeks of virtual work experience starting on Monday 15 July 2024. There is a different opportunity every day in a variety of different career areas. Please see the link below to look at these and the other opportunities Pathway offer. Students should register with Pathway to attend.

Pathway CTM virtual events

Unifrog webinars with Lancaster University

In May, Lancaster University are leading an exciting subject webinar series with Unifrog. Led by their academics these 45-minute sessions are a great way for students to learn more about their degree subject.

Marketing

Tuesday 7 May at 5pm

History

Wednesday 8 May at 4.30pm

Economics

Thursday 9 May at 5.30pm

Accounting and Finance

Monday 13 May at 5pm

Sociology

Tuesday 14 May at 4.30pm

Management

Tuesday 14 May at 5.30pm

The UniTasterDays Students' Guide to University 2024

The Students' Guide to University is produced by UniTasterDays.com in collaboration with HELOA to support you to make brilliant future university decisions.

The guide is split into sections, which are designed to support you with various parts of your higher education decision-making journey. Including why you may wish to consider university, advice when you're making your university choices, fees and finance support, application help, what to expect after you apply and when or if you start your course.

Get your copy here.

The Not Going To Uni Podcast

Explore the extraordinary journeys of apprentices who have chosen alternative career routes over traditional university paths. Join to dive into the inspiring stories of individuals who have embraced apprenticeships and other non-traditional avenues to success.

Listen now on your chosen podcast streaming platform or watch on the Not Going To Uni YouTube channel here

Willis Towers Watson (WTW) Legal Apprenticeships

WTW work with the world's leading organisations in the areas of people, risk and capital to help them solve problems such as:

- How can we invest better, in a way that builds a more sustainable planet?
- How can we properly insure a building in a country with natural disasters?
- How can we help employees plan for their retirement?
- How much should a footballer's legs be insured for?
- How can we reduce legal risk in a global organisation?

They are a global company of over 46,000 people, and employ apprentices in their UK offices in Ipswich, Reigate, Redhill, Manchester, Leeds, London, and Welwyn Garden City.

They are hiring apprentices in the following areas:

- Level 3 Paralegal (with progression to Level 7 Solicitor)
- Level 3 Pensions Administrator
- Level 7 Graduate Entry Solicitor

Applications are closing soon for the 2024 apprenticeship programmes. Please apply here before 30 April 2024 to commence in September 2024.

Sevenoaks School Oxford and Cambridge Universities information evening
Thursday 6 June from 19:30 to 20:30

For Year 12 students and their parents

This event will cover everything you need to know about making an application to either the University of Oxford or the University of Cambridge. A presentation on the application process will be given by Mike Nicholson, Director of Recruitment, Admissions and Participation at the University of Cambridge, and previously Director of Undergraduate Admissions and Outreach at the University of Oxford (2006-2014).

Tickets are free but please book in advance via this link.