Careers in Law

Young Professionals have an exciting online opportunity with City Century designed to provide students with a greater understanding of Law opportunities within the City of London.

The programme aims to make legal careers in the City feel more accessible, achievable and inclusive by equipping students with practical advice, employability skills and direct engagement with employers.

There are 10 one-hour sessions in June and July and students will meet apprentices and lawyers from leading City firms, explore different routes into Law including apprenticeships.

The sessions start on Monday 8 June and are twice weekly from 5-6pm.

For more information and to sign up, please see here .

North Kent College

NKC have multiple different courses including Further Education, Apprenticeships, Industry Placements, T Levels and Higher Education Courses.

For details of all of their courses see here.

Not Going to Uni

NGTU is free for all students to use. See here for details of their website.

It brings together apprenticeship listings, employer profiles, advice articles and real apprentice stories in one place. It is designed specifically for young people.

The Insider Guide: Solicitor Apprenticeships

This My Launchpad series is hosted by current solicitor apprentices and is designed to give students honest, practical insight into the apprenticeship route.

The sessions will cover:

- an introduction to solicitor apprenticeships.
- the financial realities of the route.
- social life and balancing work/study.
- application readiness before recruitment begins.

Each includes a live Q&A with current apprentices and recruiters.

The first session has already taken place, but the series then continues on the last Friday of June, July and August.
